

FOUR TO PLEAD MONDAY IN ROCKAWAY PARK CASE

Reynolds, Bailey, Greve and O'Malley Not to Raise Issue of Statute of Limitations.

Former State Senator William H. Reynolds, Frank Bailey, Vice-President of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, William M. Greve, Vice-President of the Neponset Realty Company, and Charles O'Malley, city land expert, indicted on charges of conspiracy in connection with the sale of the Rockaway Park site at West Rockaway to the city, are to appear before Justice (off) in the Supreme Court on Monday to plead to the indictments.

that they will not enter plea that the alleged crime is barred by the statute of limitations. They say that there is no hope of District Attorney Swann securing a conviction on the merits of the case.

Assistant District Attorney William Harmon Black, who presented the case before the Grand Jury, was given a vote of thanks today by the members of the jury. It was reported in the Criminal Courts Building that the Grand Jurors would recommend to Justice that important changes in the conduct of public business by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

RESERVE OFFICERS WANT COLLAR INSIGNE CHANGED

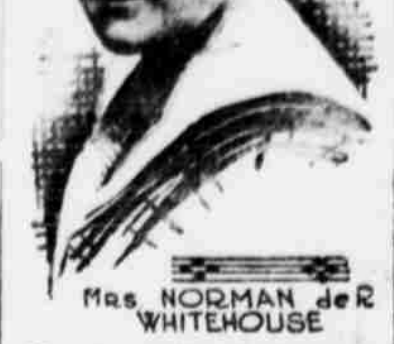

Declare Regulars and National Guardsmen Fail to Show Proper Military Courtesies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Reserve officers of the United States Army and National Guardsmen are protesting against the use of the regular army and National Guard collar insignia. They say that the insignia are not only offensive to the reserve officers but also to the National Guardsmen. They say that the insignia are not only offensive to the reserve officers but also to the National Guardsmen. MRS. WHITEHOUSE QUILTS POST AS SUFFRAGE CHIEF

Mrs. O. M. Reid Is Regarded by Many as a Possible Successor.

Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse, Chairman of the State Suffrage Party, will not run again for the office. Her two years as Chairman of the Publicity Committee of the State during the fight for the previous referendum and her labors as State Chairman were a large factor in the winning of the suffrage victory.

Mrs. NORMAN de R. WHITEHOUSE

Many women have been named as the possible successor to Mrs. Whitehouse, whom the State convention will elect next week at the Ritz-Carlton. The three Vice Chairmen, Mrs. James Lee Laidlaw, Mrs. Raymond Brown and Mrs. Henry W. Cannon, have all turned deaf ears to the suggestion.

They stand for the office. Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid, now Treasurer, is favorably regarded as a leader, but has shown no ambition to be put in nomination. It is understood pressure has been brought to bear on Mrs. Alice Duer Miller, the playwright, to permit the use of her name, but her consent is felt to be doubtful in the light of her many outside activities.

Up-State women have clamored for a representation and it is believed that Mrs. Arthur Livermore of Yonkers, who did remarkable pre-election work in her county, will be felt to be sufficiently divided from the big city interests to appeal to all delegates. In the city Mrs. Charles Noel Edge has been frequently canvassed for the place.

CRIMMINS ESTATE GOES TO FAMILY; CHARITIES AIDED

Will Gives $1,000 Each to Sons' Wives If They Live in Harmony with Husbands.

The will of John D. Crimmins, hotelier, man and philanthropist, was filed this morning. The petition does not state the value of the estate. The bulk of the property goes to the immediate family, and a number of charities are remembered with minor bequests. One clause of the will reads:

"I give and bequeath to Margaret Cole Crimmins, wife of my son Martin Lator Crimmins, if at the time of my death she is living in harmony with my said son, $1,000 for her personal use."

"I give and bequeath to Lillian Holmes Crimmins, wife of my son John D. Crimmins Jr., $1,000, if at the time of my death she is living in harmony with my said son."

In the matter of Charities the Little Sisters of the Poor receive a bequest of $3,000, the income from which is to provide an annual Christmas dinner for the inmates of their home; the School of St. Catherine of Siena, East 45th Street, $500; St. Vincent de Paul Society, $1,000; the Sisters of Charity, $100; St. Vincent's Hospital, $1,000; the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, $500; the Roman Catholic Hospital, No. 211 East 34th Street, $500; the Mission of Our Lady of the Rosary, No. 7 West Street, the Roman Catholic Orphan and Columbus Hospital, $250 each.

Five hundred dollars each is bequeathed to St. Francis Hospital in the Bronx, the Presbyterian Hospital, St. John's Hospital, the Roman Catholic Hospital, the Roman Catholic Orphan and Columbus Hospital, and the Sisters of the Holy Family.

The largest bequest left to any institution is $10,000 to St. Patrick's Cathedral for the extension of the cathedral school on East 50th Street.

To the son, Carl, and the daughter, Clara Mercedes, is left the sum of $20,000 in bonds and securities for the use of other children and grandchildren. To numerous relatives bequests ranging from $1,000 to $250 are made, and one servant, Bridget Goughan, receives a legacy of $500. One thousand dollars is to be distributed among other servants in the Crimmins family home.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.—Advt.
